 further determines that any such excess of share capital shall be converted into transferable loan stock bearing interest at the rate of

--

 per cent per annum

and repayable on the following conditions, that is to say:-

"Subject to the payment of, or a sufficient provision for, all subsisting claims on the Society, the committee may from time to time apply any moneys which they cannot profitably invest, to pay off the loan stock holders in the order in which they are entered on the register, commencing with the last entry therein, or in such order as the discretion of the committee shall dictate. If a loan stock holder, who has received notice that the committee is prepared to pay him off, leaves the sum to be thus repaid in the hands of the Society, he shall not be entitled to any interest thereon after the expiration of the time named in the notice of repayment".

This paragraph should be identical with the Rule adapted for repayment of Loan Stock.

"AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER RESOLVED that the following seven persons, members of the Company, be appointed, namely:

who, together with the Secretary, shall sign the Rules and who may and are hereby authorised to accept any alterations made in such Rules by the Registrar of Friendly Societies without further consulting the Company".
